

The Annual meeting of the Braunvieh Association of America was called to order on Jan. 20, 2013, at 12:12 pm by Jerry Jernigan. Members of the board present were: Jernigan, Snyder, Nelson, Brink, Clark, Bean, Hill, Phillips and Robert Williams. Not present were McBee, Diles, and Zinnikas. There were approximately 80 members in attendance.

After an opening prayer, there were some introductory remarks made by Jernigan.

Next was presentation of the nominees for 4 positions on the board of directors. The nominees were:

Dwight Alexander-Texas
Blake Bagley-Georgia
Tommy Clark-Virginia
Brad Doke-Missouri
Jessica Johnston-Texas

A motion to accept the list of nominees was made by Russell Freeman and seconded by Snider. The motion passed unanimously.

Phillips presented the financials. It was noted that we made a small amount of money from operations. He commented that we needed more cattle and registrations to be successful. Phillips asked the group for any questions. The only comment made was by a member praising the fact that the financials were ready for the membership before the national meeting.

Phil Kimerrer moved to accept the treasurers report and was seconded by Mark Fullenwider. With no discussion, the motion passed unanimously.

There was no old nor new business presented by the membership and special guest Charles Marshall spoke to the group. He was well received by the members attending.

Next order of business was the presentation of breeder awards for 2012. The results were as follows:

Junior Association Supporter of the Year: Carlos Guerra of La Munecca, Linn, Texas, & Merle & Diane McKoon, Paola, Kan.

Personality & Enthusiasm Award: Darkside Braunvieh, Eric & Glenda Armintrout and Lance Armintrout

New Breeder of the Year: Courtney Durrer, Ruckersville, Va.

Breeder of the Year: Cornerstone Cattle, Mendenhall, Miss.

Pioneer Breeder: Ted Jones of Double J Farms, Greenbrier, Tenn.

President Jernigan made some comments thanking both exiting and remaining board members for their service to the board in 2012. Following those comments, he announced the results of the election. The following people were elected to the board:

Dwight Alexander, Blake Bagley, Brad Doke, and Tommy Clark.

With no other business, Ray Snider motioned that the meeting be adjourned, and with a second by Tommy Clark, and no further discussion the motion was passed unanimously and the meeting was closed.
