

Ring of Excellence

Point Recognition Show Rules

Braunvieh Association of America

This program will give attention on an annual basis to individual show-winning animals as well as sires and dams of those award winners. It will also give recognition to the Braunvieh show breeder of the year.

The award given to the higher placing animals and the winner of the greatest number of points include:

- Show Bull of the Year
- Show Heifer of the Year
- Show Sire of the Year
- Show Dam of the Year
- Show Breeder of the Year

The Ring of Excellence program will consist of six shows. Points in each show will depend on the number of animals entered and shown at that event. The shows making up the program are:

- Midwest Regional Show at Ozark Empire Fair
- Tulsa State Fair
- American Royal at Kansas City
- Southwestern Livestock Exposition at Fort Worth
- National Western Stock Show at Denver
- Houston Livestock Show

Distribution of Points Earned

1. Points are earned only from designated shows held within a show season: June 1-May 31. The winners will be referred to as the show bull of the year, show heifer of the year, show sire of the year, show dam of the year, and show breeder of the year.
2. For show bull, show heifer and show breeder of the year, points are earned from class placings, division champions, reserve division champions and grand and reserve champion placings. Points will be allowed from each animal/breeders top five shows. An animal may be shown in as many shows as desired.
3. For show sire and dam of the year, points are earned as above. Points will be awarded for all shows in a show season.
4. To receive credit for points earned, all show entries must be breeding animals and must meet the requirements for show eligibility of the Braunvieh Association of America and the respective show management. Exhibitors must as well comply with all show rules of those same entities.
5. Show will be designated as Class A, AA, AAA, AAAA based on the number of animals shown in each division (Fullblood/Purebred, Beefbuilder/Percentage), not on total head shown, at each show and points given below. One Fullblood/Purebred and one Percentage/Beefbuilder Points Champion will be awarded regardless of division break downs.

6. Get of Sire and Produce of Dam entries will contribute points towards the Show Sire and Show Dam of the Year respectively.
